

Situation Report - 10 Manipur Violence

Date: 11th August 2023

Time: 09:00 AM

Despite the deployment of paramilitary forces and army columns to maintain peace, Manipur continues to experience persistent violence, resulting in over 60,000 internally displaced individuals, with children facing an uncertain future and slipping into depression. The government's efforts to contain the violence and promote dialogue through the peace committee have encountered significant obstacles. In response to the humanitarian crisis, the central government is planning financial assistance schemes. The situation remains challenging, requiring collective efforts to bring about peace and stability while providing essential support to the affected population in their path to recovery.

SITUATION UPDATE AND RESPONSE

- The situation in Manipur remains tense and challenging, with over 60,000 people internally displaced. Reports indicate 187 casualties and over 6,000 injuries. Additionally, more than 56,000 individuals have sought refuge in over 360 relief camps.
- On the morning of August 5th, a series of day-long attacks along the Bishnupur-Churachandpur border areas resulted in six people being killed and 16 others injured. These incidents were accompanied by acts of arson, leading to at least 15 houses being burnt down. Unidentified mobs also burned down houses in Langgol, Imphal West district.
- The Supreme Court is set to appoint an all-women committee composed of three former High Court judges. The committee will address various aspects, including relief measures, rehabilitation, and the rebuilding of homes and places of worship in the violence-affected areas of Manipur.
- A status report filed by the state government indicated that 59 deaths happened between May 3 and May 5, as well as 28 deaths between May 27 and May 29. Additionally, there have been over 5,000 cases of arson, 502 people injured. Only one case of rape and murder was registered from May 3 to July 31 in the state and 11 FIRs involving crimes against women and children out of a total of 6,500 cases.

- To address the security situation, the Central government has deployed 800 additional security personnel to Manipur.
- In a major change regarding security deployment in strife-torn Manipur, the Assam Rifles has been withdrawn and replaced with CRPF at a vital checkpoint in Moirang Lamkhai of Bishnupur district after hundreds of women activists took to the streets at several places, accusing the central paramilitary force of brutality towards civilians in the valley districts.

HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE

- The Centre government is devising financial assistance schemes for the affected people, which include providing one-time financial aid for clothing and personal belongings to those residing in relief camps, offering a package to support farmers, ensuring temporary housing arrangements, providing television sets for relief camps, and establishing computer centers in the affected districts.
- In response to the mental health crisis among affected children, a team from NIMHANS Bengaluru is scheduled to visit the relief camps. Their purpose is to assess the mental well-being of the affected children. Furthermore, a workshop for counselors is scheduled to take place from August 7-10, aiming to enhance their ability to support those in need.
- Sphere India convened a protection sector committee meeting on 3rd August to address the alarming reports of Gender-Based Violence and protection issues. Following this, an inter-agency visit to Manipur has been undertaken to assess the situation, document findings, and strategize the next course of action to address the distressing incidents and protect vulnerable communities.
